The failure to object when returning the opponent's challenge sheet to the court officer constitutes a waiver of such objection.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2010; Further Amended Effective December 1, 2014].

Rule 4. Trial and Motion Schedules and Calendars

Section 4.01. Trial and Motion Schedules and Calendars

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004. Amended Effective September 1, 2010].

Rule 5. Pretrial Motions

Section 5.01. General

All pretrial motions must be filed and scheduled for hearing no later than the court's last regular motion day before the scheduled trial date. No motions, including motions in limine to exclude testimony, will be heard on the day of trial.

Section 5.02. Content of Motions

Motions and written oppositions to motions may contain legal analysis or argument designated as such, or may be accompanied by a separate memorandum of law. In the event a party relies upon legal authority other than published cases decided by Tennessee appellate courts, a copy of the authority on which the party relies shall be filed as an appendix to the party's written legal argument.

Section 5.03. 14-Day Rule

(a) All motions, other than motions for summary judgment, together with all affidavits, sworn income and expense statements, depositions, briefs and other matters presented in support of the motion, must be filed and served by personal delivery at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the hearing on the motion. Notice of the hearing date shall be either set out conspicuously in the motion or in a separate writing filed with the clerk and served on all parties at least fourteen (14) days prior to the hearing date.

(b) Motions for summary judgment must be scheduled to be heard at least thirty (30) days before the scheduled trial date, unless the court orders otherwise. A motion for summary judgment cannot be heard until at least thirty-seven (37) days after the motion and all matters presented in support of the motion are filed and served, unless the court orders otherwise. Motions for summary judgment will be set for hearing upon contacting the court's judicial legal assistant for dates and times and by order of the court using the form in Appendix A attached hereto.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2017].

(c) If a motion is opposed, a written response to the motion must be filed and served on all parties. Responses to motions, including counter-affidavits, sworn income and expense statements, depositions, briefs or any other matters presented in opposition to the motion, must be filed and served by personal delivery. For motions set to be heard in Williamson County, service must be accomplished no later than the close of business on the Monday before the day on which the motion is set to be heard. For motions set to be heard in either Hickman, Lewis, or Perry Counties, such service shall be accomplished not later than the close of business four (4) business days prior to the date on which the motion is set to be heard. There shall be no reply to a response. In the event no written response is filed in opposition to a motion, the counsel for the moving party need not appear on the date set for hearing. Rather, counsel for the moving party may serve and submit an order to be signed by the Judge which order shall be treated as an order not approved for entry by all parties, in accordance with Rule 11.01 of these Local Rules. The Circuit Court Clerk and the Clerk & Master shall establish a "no response" docket which reflects the date and time when a motion is filed and the fact that no response was timely filed.

(d) If, at the time a motion is filed the moving party sets the motion to be heard, the motion shall conspicuously state the date and time of the hearing and shall advise the non-moving party that the failure to file and serve a written response may result in the motion being granted without further hearing. The following text, if used by the moving party, shall be deemed in compliance with this rule:

"THIS MOTION IS SET TO BE HEARD ON _____(date) AT (time) O'CLOCK, A.M./P.M. ON THE (CIRCUIT) (CHANCERY) COURT MOTION DOCKET HEARD AT THE _____ COUNTY COURTHOUSE. IF NO WRITTEN RESPONSE TO THIS MOTION IS FILED AND SERVED IN THE TIME SET BY THE LOCAL RULES OF PRACTICE, THE MOTION MAY BE GRANTED WITHOUT A HEARING."

(e) If, at the time a motion is filed, the moving party does not set the motion to be heard, the motion shall conspicuously advise the non-moving party that the motion has not been set for a hearing. Thereafter, the moving party, or the parties by agreement, shall, by written notice timely served on all parties, set the motion to be heard within the time constraints established by these rules.

(f) For purposes of this Local Rule, service by personal delivery of a motion or of a written response in opposition to a motion means: (i) physical delivery, or (ii) electronic delivery via email in accordance with Rule 5.02(2), Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 5.04            Motion to Compel/Efforts to Resolve Discovery Conflicts

The Court will refuse to rule on any motion related to discovery, including a motion to compel for failure to timely respond, unless the motion contains a statement which certifies the lawyer for the moving party, or the moving party when said party is self-represented, has conferred with opposing counsel, or party, in a good faith effort to resolve the matters alleged in the motion and that the effort has not been successful. Such good faith effort shall, at a minimum, be evidenced by a writing from the moving party to the non-moving party describing the alleged deficiencies in discovery.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Further Amended Effective September 1, 2017].

Section 5.05. Chambers' Copies of Motions and Memoranda

Parties have leave to submit to the courts' chambers an additional copy of all potentially dispositive motions and supporting memoranda of law [e.g. motions to dismiss, judgment on the pleadings, summary judgment] and motions and supporting memoranda of law for class certification. Such submission may be by email to the respective judge's assistant attaching a portable data file. A chambers' copy of supporting evidentiary material is not required nor encouraged. A party submitting a chambers' copy of any motion and/or memorandum shall serve a full and complete copy on the adverse party. Orders are not to be submitted directly to chambers, unless specifically requested by the court. All originals must be filed with the clerk.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2010; Further Amended Effective December 1, 2014].

Rule 6. Post-Trial Motions and Motions in Hickman, Lewis, and Perry Counties

Section 6.01 Motions for New Trial, Motions for Judgment N.O.V. and Motions to Alter or Amend

Motions for new trial, motions for judgment n.o.v. and motions to alter or amend will not be set for hearing except upon direction of the Judge. Such motions should be accompanied by any citation of authorities and written argument which the moving party wishes the Judge to consider. No such motion will be sustained by the Judge without affording the adverse parties an opportunity either to file responsive briefs and written argument or to be heard in oral argument.

Section 6.02. Setting of Motions in Hickman, Lewis, or Perry County

(a) Motions in all civil cases pending in either Hickman, Lewis, or Perry County may be heard on the regular circuit or chancery motion dockets of any of those counties irrespective of the county where the case[s] may be pending. Counsel for a party wishing to have a motion heard in a county other than the county where the case is pending shall give fourteen (14) days notice to adversary counsel and the court of the setting for the hearing and shall be responsible for obtaining the record from the Circuit Clerk or Clerk & Master where the case is pending, delivering the record to the court on the day of the hearing and, following the hearing, promptly returning the record to the Circuit Clerk or Clerk & Master where the case is pending.

(b) The provisions of this Section are applicable only to cases pending in either Hickman, Lewis, or Perry counties, shall not apply to cases pending in Williamson County and does not authorize the setting of any pretrial motions for hearing in Williamson County without prior leave of court.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no party proceeding pro se shall be permitted to set a pretrial motion for hearing in any county other than the county in which the case is pending.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended September 1, 2010; Further Amended Effective December 1, 2014].

Rule 7. Setting Cases for Trial and Continuances

Section 7.01. Setting Cases for Trial

Except for divorce and parenting plan actions and cases anticipated to take longer than 3 days to try, cases shall be set for trial in one of the following ways:

- (a) By agreement of counsel after consultation with the Judges' Administrative Assistant, such agreement to be evidenced by a court order;
- (b) By motion; and
- (c) By the court with notice to counsel.

Non-jury trials which are anticipated to require 2 hours or less may be set by agreed order on the regularly scheduled non-jury days. Cases requiring longer than 2 hours, but not longer than one (1) day, may be set by agreement after consultation with the Judges' Office. Domestic cases will be set in accordance with Rule 12 of these Local Rules.

Court schedules shall be prepared, released, posted in the clerk's offices and distributed to the attorneys quarterly for the following six- month period. Attorneys may request electronic mail of the court's schedule by providing their electronic mail address to the judge's office. Cases shall be docketed in the order that the Order setting the case for trial is presented to the clerk of the court.

All motions to set and orders setting a case for trial will include a statement of how long the attorney anticipates the case will take for trial. Any case that the attorney or attorneys anticipate will take longer than three days will be set by motion only.

Section 7.02. Certifying Cases Ready When Set

(a) When a case is set by agreement or by motion without objection, all counsel are certifying that they, their clients, and their necessary witnesses will be available for trial on the trial date and that all discovery has been completed or will be completed prior to the selected trial date. Where a case is set by the court or by motion over the objection of one or more of the parties, the court will specify a reasonable time within which discovery is to be completed and specify a trial date which falls at least fifteen (15) days thereafter. The failure to have completed discovery, inability to take a deposition, or failure to have completed any other trial preparation will not be grounds for a continuance.

(b) In accordance with Rule 5, all pretrial motions, including motions to exclude evidence, must be filed in time to permit oral argument not later than the last regular motion day before the scheduled trial date. No motions will be argued on the morning of trial.

(c) At the time a case is set for trial, counsel will provide their best, good-faith estimate of the number of trial days reasonably likely to be required to try the case.

(d) For all cases to be tried to a jury, and all non-jury cases where counsel for at least one party estimates the trial to require two or more days to try, the order setting the case for trial shall comply with the provisions of Rule 9 of these Local Rules.

(e) Mediation is a proven and effective method of alternative dispute resolution. Engaging in mediation promotes settlement and enhances the just and efficient resolution of civil litigation. Accordingly, unless approved by the court, no civil action shall be set for trial unless the parties have (i) engaged in good faith mediation without success, or have either, (ii) a firm date set for a mediation, (iii) a deadline pursuant to a scheduling order for completion of mediation, or (iv) an order of the court relieving the parties from the requirements of this rule, at the time they seek to have a case set for trial. This rule does not apply to the following classes of cases: (i) appeals from judgments in the general session court or juvenile court, and (ii) cases seeking termination of parental rights.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended September 1, 2010; Further Amended Effective December 1, 2014].

Section 7.03. Continuances

Cases may be continued only by leave of court. Motions and agreements for continuance must be supported by sworn affidavit and either be signed by the party or signed by the attorney and contain a certificate that a copy of the motion has been mailed to the party or parties whom a signing attorney represents.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2010].

Rule 8. General Sessions Appeals

All General Sessions appeals will be set for trial by order of the Court. The Clerk will notify the parties of the trial date.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2010; Further Amended Effective December 1, 2014].

Rule 9. Pre-Trial Procedure in Civil Cases

Section 9.01. Non-Jury Cases Requiring No More Than One Trial Day

In all civil actions set for trial on the merits where all counsel for the parties estimate in good faith that no more than one day will be required to try the case, at least seventy-two (72) hours (excluding weekends) prior to the date set for trial:

(a) The names and addresses of all witnesses shall be furnished to opposing counsel;

(b) Copies of all exhibits which are proposed to be offered shall be furnished to opposing counsel. When it is impractical to copy exhibits, the proposed exhibits shall be made available for inspection upon reasonable notice; and

(c) In a divorce hearing, either final or temporary, involving alimony and/or child support issues, a property, income, and expense statement in the form attached as Appendix B as appropriate, shall be filed with the Clerk and a copy furnished to opposing counsel. The parties may also include a proposed division of property and indebtednesses.

A violation of the above may be grounds for exclusion of the evidence.

Section 9.02. Jury Trials and Non-Jury Cases Requiring Two or More Trial Days

In all civil actions set for trial by jury and all non-jury cases where counsel for the parties estimate in good faith that two or more days will be required to try the case, the following procedures shall apply:

(a) Not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the trial date, each party shall supplement all prior written discovery responses to the fullest extent required by Rule 26.05(3) of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to relieve any party of the duty seasonably to supplement the party's responses to discovery otherwise required by Rules 26.05(1) and (2).

(b) In cases to be tried to a jury, not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the trial date, each party shall file and serve proposed jury instructions and requested verdict form and provide a bench copy to the court. A party requesting an instruction contained in the "then-most-current-edition" of the Tennessee Patterned Jury Instructions (Civil), may comply with this rule by citing to the number of the pattern instruction. A party requesting an instruction not contained in the pattern instructions shall provide the full text of the requested instruction together with appropriate citation to legal authority for the proposed instruction.

(c) Not less than seven (7) days prior to the trial date, the parties shall jointly file a pre-trial statement setting out the following information:

(i) The name of each witness to be called by each party during the presentation of that party's case-in-chief, either in person or by deposition, together with a designation of whether the witness is offered as an expert;

(ii) A designation by page and line number of all deposition excerpts to be offered into evidence in lieu of the live testimony of the deponent witness pursuant to Rules 32.01 (2) and (3) of the Tennessee Rule of Civil Procedure and any objection to such designation;

(iii) A list of all exhibits to be offered by each party into evidence during the presentation of that party's case-in-chief, together with a designation of which exhibits, if any, have been stipulated by the parties to be either authentic and/or admissible in evidence; and

(iv) A concise statement of each party's claims and defenses.

(d) Not less than seven (7) days prior to a non-jury trial, each party shall separately file and serve on all other parties by personal delivery, a pre-trial brief setting forth the party's position and legal argument with respect to the issues to be tried. A party may choose to comply with this Section by filing proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Section 9.03. Customized Case Management

(a) The purpose of customized case management is to provide mandatory, court-supervised case management tailored to the individual needs of appropriate cases. Management of cases is primarily and ultimately the responsibility of the lawyers acting in the best interests of their clients. Customized case management brings to bear the attention and resources of the court to assist the parties in achieving the most efficient planning, scheduling, and progression of the case in order to facilitate the just, speedy, and less costly disposition of civil actions in the 21st Judicial District. Cases appropriate for customized case management are those that present inherent factual, legal, or procedural complexity such that the efficient administration of justice and the interests of the parties will benefit from a greater degree of pre-trial case management.

(b) After the filing of an initial responsive pleading, counsel for either party may, by motion, request that a case be subject to the pre-trial procedures in this Section. The court may, on its own motion, likewise determine that a case be subject to the procedures in this Section. Because the benefits of customized case management are diminished the longer a case is pending, the court will give great weight to the length of time a case has been pending in determining whether the case is appropriate for the procedures of this Section.

(c) A case selected for customized case management will be promptly set for an Initial Case Management Conference which, at the court's discretion, may be held in person with counsel for the parties or by a scheduled telephone conference call. The Initial Case Management Conference shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 26.06 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. Prior to the Initial Case Management Conference, counsel for all parties shall, at the initiative of plaintiff's counsel, prepare a proposed case management order that includes to the extent practicable the following elements:

- (i) Whether the court's jurisdiction and the venue of the action are disputed;
- (ii) The parties' theories of the case and their claims and defenses;
- (iii) A proposed discovery plan. In the event the parties are unable to reasonably agree on a proposed discovery plan, each party shall submit the party's own proposed discovery plan; and
- (iv) The identification of any legal issues, the resolution of which may substantially shorten the litigation or length of trial.

(d) The court, on its own motion or the parties by agreement or motion, may schedule subsequent case management conferences as appropriate and necessary for the efficient conduct of the case.

(e) The provisions of Section 9.02 shall apply to all cases subject to this Section.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2004; Amended effective September 1, 2010; Further amended effective December 1, 2014].

Section 9.04            Complex Commercial Dispute Docket

(a) General: A separate Complex Commercial Dispute Docket is hereby created for eligible civil cases filed in Chancery or Circuit Court in Williamson County.

(b) Purpose and Organization: The Complex Commercial Dispute Docket is a form of customized case management consisting of a specialized docket established to provide more cost effective disposition of business cases, and continuity of case management notwithstanding the normal docket rotation practices of the Twenty-First Judicial District. A single circuit judge/chancellor, designated by the Presiding Judge with the concurrence of all circuit judges serving the Judicial District, shall be assigned to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket. Individual cases shall be transferred to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket in accordance with the procedures set out in this Section 9.04, irrespective of which part of the Circuit or Chancery non-domestic civil docket the case would ordinarily be assigned based upon docket number at the time of initial filing.

The moving party shall set the Motion for Transfer to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket for a hearing pursuant to Section 5.03 of these Local Rules. The judge assigned to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket shall decide the merits of said motion.
- (2) In addition, the court to which an eligible case is initially assigned at the time of filing, if that judge is not the judge assigned to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket, may, on that court's own motion, designate such eligible case for transfer to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket. Any party objecting to the transfer shall, not later than twenty eight (28) days following the designation of the case for transfer to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket, file and serve its objection to the designation and set the same for hearing pursuant to Section 5.03 of these Local Rules. Any party failing to object timely and in writing to the designation of a case for transfer to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket, shall be deemed to have consented to such designation.

(e) Effect of transfer to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket: Cases transferred to the Complex Commercial Dispute Docket will be subject to customized case management pursuant to Tenn. R. Civ. R. Crim. P. 42, on a date certain to be entered by the clerk at the time the order to appear is entered. The party initiating the criminal contempt matter shall, without unreasonable delay, serve the Initial Appearance Order upon the criminal contempt defendant and/or his or her counsel of record, if any.

- (b) Initial appearance: Unless the contempt defendant waives his or her right to an initial appearance, at the date and time set in the Initial Appearance Order, or by any subsequent court order, the court will provide the contempt defendant the notices described in Tenn. The Rule 42 Order shall conform to the form in Appendix E to these Local Rules and shall include (i) a schedule for the orderly disposition of the contempt charge, (ii) a stay of discovery served on the contempt defendant, and (ii) a hearing date, if feasible.

- (c) Waiver of initial appearance: Prior to the scheduled date of the initial appearance, a contempt defendant may waive his or her right to an initial appearance by filing and serving upon the adversary party, a notice of waiver that conforms in form and substance with the form in Appendix F to these Local Rules.

Rule 11. Orders and Judgments

Section 11.01 Preparation and Submission

Unless the court directs otherwise, attorneys for prevailing parties will prepare proposed orders for entry by the court and shall file such proposed orders not more than seven (7) days following the day on which the ruling is made by the court. If the proposed order submitted reflects that it has been approved for entry by counsel for all parties, then the court will take action promptly to enter such proposed order, or, at the court's discretion, enter the court's own order with respect to the ruling. If the proposed order does not reflect that it has been approved for entry by counsel for all parties, then the court will take no action to enter such proposed order for seven (7) days after receipt of the proposed order to afford counsel for the opposing party to submit an alternative proposed order. If the opposing party submits an alternative proposed order, the court shall undertake promptly to enter either the original proposed order, the alternative proposed order, or the court's own order with respect to the ruling. All of the time periods in this section may, for good cause, be extended by the court.

A party's approval for entry of a proposed order, which does not by its express terms state that it is an agreed order, shall not be construed as anything other than the party's agreement that the proposed order accurately reflects the court's ruling on the particular matter and shall not be construed to imply that party's agreement with or consent to the ruling set out in the proposed order.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2010; Further Amended December 1, 2014].

Section 11.02 Non-Minute Entry Orders

Orders not affecting the legal course of an action, such as orders setting a case for trial or acting upon a request for a continuance, may be designated by the clerk as a non-minute entry order. Such designated order shall be placed in the file of the case but not spread upon the minutes of the court.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2004; Amended Effective September 1, 2010].

Section 11.03 Court Costs

(a) All final judgments shall provide for the taxing of court costs.

(b) Whenever it appears to the clerk that a judgment has been satisfied but that court costs have not been paid, the clerk may apply to the court for a retaxing of court costs. The clerk shall notify the parties of the application and the date and time it will be considered by the court.

- (5) Pass the case to the next appropriate date.

Section 2.04

(a.) That the state has failed to respond to a request for discovery filed pursuant to Rule 16, T.R.Cr.P.

(2) On the review date for each particular case, it shall be the responsibility of the district attorney, or his or her assistant to advise the court that the defendant has failed to provide discovery per reciprocal agreement or as requested pursuant to Rule 16, T.R.Cr.P.

All motions for continuance made prior to the date of trial or hearing shall be filed in writing, shall state the reason the continuance is being sought and shall either be sworn to or be supported by sworn affidavit. No agreements to continue a case will be approved unless a date has been agreed upon for resetting the hearing or trial being continued.

Section 4.04. It is expected that a case where the defendant is charged with a crime of violence involving death or serious bodily injury shall be given priority in scheduling and selection of cases for trial over cases not involving such a charge.
